

SUMMER PROGRAM 2024

Kyushu Lutheran International School (LIS), which opened in April this year, will be holding an English summer program for young children and elementary school students. Through various activities, children will be able to experience an English environment and the atmosphere of an international school. Registration will close once capacity (small classes of about 20 students per class) is reached.

Session1 July 22, 2024 (Mon) – July 26, 2024 (Fri), 5 days, 9 AM ~ 2:30 PM

Session2 August 5, 2024 (Mon) – August 9, 2024 (Fri), 5 days, 9 AM ~ 2:30 PM

Location: Kyushu Lutheran International School, Primary School Division (LIS)

Capacity: 40 students (2 classes of 20 students each) per session.
Minimum participants required: 15 per session

Age Range: 4 to 11 years old (preschool to 5th grade)

F e e : 60,000 JPY per session

Instructors: Native teachers from Kyushu Lutheran International School (LIS)

C o n t e n t : Project-based inquiry learning in groups, experiences in English(e.g., physical education, art, field trips). This is a five-day program where students will learn and experience through English, not just learn English.
